TO : Deputy Director/Plans
ATTN : WH Division (SA)
SUBJECT : JMWAVE Area Housing Benefits Program
REFERENCE: Memorandum to DDCI from DDP/WH, Same Subject, dated 31 March 1964

The justification for the extension of the existing JMWAVE housing program contained in the referenced memorandum has been thoroughly reviewed. In order to phase out this housing program without security risk and on as equitable base as possible, the period for phase-out will commence on 31 May 1964 and will extend to 30 November 1964 thereby allowing a six months' period. Furthermore, this particular period is the off season and is an ideal time to readjust the housing situation. The Agency will reimburse personnel for any penalties occasioned by breaking leases in order to relocate. No benefits will be paid after 30 November 1965 and all personnel will phase into new housing as rapidly as possible.

Marshall S. Carter
Lieutenant General, USA
Deputy Director
